Peter D. Richter, Candidate for Florida State Rep. District #106 (Naples/Marco) defends the rights of small businesses in Collier County

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 10, 2012 Naples, FL – Peter D. Richter is taking a stand for liberty so that our children do not have to bow in slavery. Early this morning Libertarian candidate Peter Richter continued his drive to spread the message of liberty in Collier County by holding a candidate Meet and Greet at the Great Naples Chamber of Commerce. Richter, the only candidate in the race who has made reducing burdensome regulations on small businesses a major part of his platform, thought that holding an event at the Chamber of Commerce was the perfect location to continue his push for Florida District 106.

The Naples Chamber works for a healthy economic climate that includes good jobs, capital creation, and honest, efficient government. "In this difficult economic climate the best thing government can do is to get out of the way. The Naples Chamber working for honest and efficient government is an honorable and important thing but in my mind the most efficient government is the one that allows our small business owners to open or expand and hire new employees without causing two year delays with bureaucratic red tape. How many pay checks didn't get issued this year because our elected officials in Tallahassee were too busy trying to grant favors to their establishment buddies or immunity to themselves rather than working hard to eliminate the barriers holding back our small business leaders?" Richter said.

Holding meet and greets and talking to his fellow citizens as much as possible is one of Richter's favorite parts about campaigning. When citizens get active and learn about the candidates and the issues it makes it easier to hold the officials accountable. "My opponent's office is located literally right down the hall from the Chamber. I wonder if she even knows that it's here. If she does, she hasn't been listening to the needs of our small business leaders and if she doesn't, it just shows how out of touch she is with the struggles of small businesses in our district. I am a small business owner myself, I know what it's like to try and escape the stranglehold of red tape to operate. It's time that we decide to Stand for Liberty and send a person to Tallahassee who will fight for small businesses!" said Richter.

Peter D. Richter is a Libertarian candidate for Florida State Representative, district #106 (Formerly #76). Peter and his wife and two children are full time residents of Naples. In addition to his run for office, he is also the owner of an Information Technology consulting business. Learn more at www.electRichter.com
